Storyteller: Are you ready for a story?

Boy: A story about Caillou.

Storyteller: Today's story is called "Caillou Walks a Dog".

Caillou: It's the puppy.

Storyteller: Caillou had met this cute little dog before.

Grandma: Hello, Caillou. I'm looking after this little fellow again. He wanted to visit his friend, Caillou. Would you like to walk the dog with me?

Daddy: Sure.

Caillou: Yippee! Could I walk him?

Grandma: Of course.

Caillou: Look, Grandma. He's sitting down.

Grandma: He's waiting for you to tell him to cross the street. Say "walk" when it's time to go.

Caillou: Walk!

Storyteller: Caillou loved it when the little dog obeyed his orders.

Grandma: Look what I brought for you.

Caillou: He wants to play.

Grandma: Throw the ball and tell him to fetch. He'll bring it right back to you.

Caillou: Fetch! He did it.

Grandma: Tell him to drop it

Caillou: Drop it! Wow! Fetch!

Storyteller: Caillou had a wonderful afternoon at the park playing with the little white dog.

Caillou: Daddy, you know what I really, really want...

Daddy: What, Caillou?

Caillou: I want a little white dog.

Daddy: He's very cute, isn't he? But you know, Caillou, we already have a pet. We have Gilbert.

Caillou: But I want a dog. A dog that I can walk.

Daddy: Maybe when you and Rosie are a bit older, we could think about getting a dog. Good night!

Caillou: Good night, Daddy.

Storyteller: Caillou didn't want to wait until he was older. He wanted to get a dog now.

Storyteller: When Caillou found his toy dog the next morning. He got an idea.

Caillou: This can be your leash. Mommy!
Daddy! Come, see!

Daddy: What is it?

Caillou: A surprise. Look!

Rosie: Doggie! Walk!

Storyteller: And now Caillou had a dog of his own that he could walk every day.
